

European Regional Development Fund

AquaVIP

Aquaculture virtual career development platform for the South Baltic region

Project Partners: Klaipeda Science and Technology Park, Lithuania (Lead Partner), University of Rostock, Germany, University of Gdańsk, Poland, Klaipeda University, Lithuania

AquaVIP service offer: Aquaculture Youth career development (AquaYouth), Aquaculture Professionals success support (AquaProfi), Aquaculture innovaTION - boosting education and business capacity (AquaTION)

AquaVIP project objective is to boost aquaculture labor market within the South Baltic area by fostering human resources capacity: students and companies along the aquaculture value chain through cross-border training and networking, which will result in an increased number of skilled professionals and future employees in the blue economy sector.

Duration:

Jan 2020 – Dec 2022

Total eligible budget:

1 053 108.00 EUR

European Regional Development Fund:

895 141.80 EUR

www.aquavip.edu.pl